

Seating

It's important that those traveling with, or escorting children under the age of 14 board the aircraft together to ensure seating in close proximity is available.

